Falls City Man Sentenced in Fatal Crash

(Lincoln, Neb) Attorney General Jon Bruning announced that James Mackey, of Falls City, Neb., was sentenced to the maximum of 20 years in prison by a Pawnee County District Court today on a manslaughter charge stemming from a 2008 vehicle crash that left one woman dead.

Mackey, 28, was driving a pickup on March 11, 2008, when he crashed the vehicle east of Table Rock, Neb. Alisha Miller, 29, of Falls City was killed in the crash. Two other passengers were injured.

Mackey entered a plea of no contest to manslaughter, a Class III offense that carries a maximum sentence of 20 years in prison.

Assistant Attorney's General Ed Vierk and Greg Ariza and Pawnee County Attorney Victor Faesser handled the case.
